

To whom it may concern. I truly believe if criminals were held accountable and prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law gun violence would drop considerably. There is no reason to keep stacking up new ways to suppress law abiding citizens. The slap and release program that has been going on does not work. Our system is broken. With that being said I am totally against SB#477 and HB#5397

Robert Lemieux
Thompson CT.